DairyTrace updates for all things traceability

Welcome to DairyTrace TagTips - quick tips, helpful hints and FAQs to help you understand the most efficient ways to use your traceability tools.

Christmas Greetings from DairyTrace!

"I want to wish dairy farmers and their loved ones a very Merry Christmas and a restful and joyful holiday season. May 2024 bring you health, happiness and prosperity.

Thank you for your continued support of and participation in the DairyTrace program.

Since its launch in October 2020, dairy farmers have purchased over 580,000 DairyTrace white single button RFID tags. You are helping to ensure an effective national and globally trusted traceability system, making the Canadian dairy industry even stronger."

- Brian Van Doormaal, Chief Services Officer,
Lactanet Canada

Did you know?

DairyTrace users can now order tags directly from their DairyTrace account.

This is a new option in addition to ordering through the DairyTrace customer services team or by signing into your Holstein Canada WebServices account.
